B2K

Ohhh

Listen baby

See theres this girl that i know

And shes more (more than average shes a perfect ten)

Dont really know how to handle someone who (wants to put her on, make her number one)

Shes so used to that mentallity, got to hustle hard, riding in the streets

Thats so crazy

Somebodys baby

Going through these things

But I've got love for you and i wanna show you girl

Ohhh

Your friends dont like me

For real though (baby girl)

They say i'm no good for you (ohh)

They're jealous cuz you finally found a good lover

Who only wants the best for you

I'm tryin to take you out the hood

Show you something good

Make sure you're ok

Everything is straight (everything is straight)

You're a superstar

You deserve it all

More than just a ghetto queen (more than just a ghetto queen)

Wanna put you in some diamonds

Take you to the islands

Show you everything

You aint never seen

Just let me take you out the hood babe

Let me take you out the hood baby (yeah yeah yeah)

Girl let me change your world for you babe

Take you out the hood

Tell me have you ever seen (white sand on a private beach)

Tell me did you wanna go somewhere (Somewhere you've seen on tv)

Well girl i've got the means to take you anywhere

So dont let your friends cause you to be afraid

They're just lonely

And you're the only

Only thing that matters to me

Even my homies, they gang on me

Cuz they think they could do it for me
