

The Other Guy

B2K

It's another day of you trippin out on me
I could retaliate and bring the ghetto outta me
But I'm feeling you
But not the things you do
I would rather set you straight
Then smack you in your face
This is not your ex-relationship
Cause all I gotta say is

Girl you just don't realize
You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guy
Because I wear saggy jeans, tim boots and don't lie like the rest do
You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guys

There is no reason for
All these crazy confrontations
Let's set the record straight
You're the only one for me
Mature in heart I am
Please just understand
(okay look)
First I gave you the world
Then I played the role
Then I fell in love with you girl

Heartfelt
unselfish
Love
All thoughts
Revolve around you

Um
I mean
I don't understand
I mean
I know what you had and what you been through
But I'm here and I'm different

Girl you just don't realize
You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guys
Because I wear saggy jeans, tim boats and don't lie like the rest do
You gotta figure out I'm not like the other guy
