

Baby Pride

Babe Ruth

And saw
Winter creepin
Inside your mind
That's only livin'
For the sun
And Baby Pride
We're string puppets
Dancin' past forgettin smiles
Forget the the cold and wintry lie
"It's past your eyes"

I feel cold and warm
Things I find are gone
We make it so very hard
To be loved for what we are
We're string puppets
Dancin' past forgettin smiles
Forget the cold and wintry lie
"Forget your pride"
