

Bang go the bells

Babylon A.D.

Every time you lick my hand
My heart begins to kick
Towards the fire we start to dance
Burning with each kiss
Tears like a virgin
The first time from your eyes
You turned out to be
All I desire

When I want love, I call on you
When I want love, I run to you
You're something more than a sweet romance
I just get one taste of you
Bang go the bells

Your dreams have becomes as mine
Mine have become yours
Like two ships we sail the night
Down to the distant shores
Eyes of blue, velvet touch
You got what I want
Round and round on the wheels of love
Driving me right out of control

When I want love, I call on you
When I want love, I run to you
You're something more than a sweet romance
I just get one taste of you

Bang go the bells
And all is well
When I look in those eyes
Bang go the bells
Yeah, you've got something, baby
I just can't deny
Bang go the bells

When I want love, I call on you
When I want love, I run to you
You're something more than a cheap romance
I just get one look at you

Bang go the bells
And all is well
When I look in your eyes
Bang go the bells
Yeah, you got something, baby
I just can't deny
I just can't deny
I just can't deny
Bang go the bells

Bang go the bells
Bang go the bells
Bang go the bells
Bang go the bells
(Bang, bang, bang go the bells)

Bang go the bells
(Bang, bang, bang go the bells)
Bang go the bells
(Bang, bang, bang go the bells)
Bang go the bells
(Bang, bang, bang go the bells!)
