

I don't want your love
Bang bang I'm gone
But I still need you now
The seeds are sown
Oh baby baby baby
won't you crash into my arms

Maybelline Maybelline
You're worth one million in prizes
Why do I feel dismay?
Maybelline Maybelline
since you moved to devices
You're just down the way ooh

No I don't want your love
Bang bang I'm gone
I still need your love
The seeds are sown
Baby baby baby
won't you crash into my arms

Oh Maybelline Maybelline
You're worth one million in prizes
Why would I feel this way?
Oh Maybelline Maybelline
since you moved to devices
Oh you're just down the way

I don't want your love
Bang bang I'm gone
but I still need your love
The seeds are sown
Baby baby baby
won't you crash into my arms

Maybelline Maybelline
You're worth one million in prizes
Why do I feel this way?
Maybelline Maybelline
You're worth one million in prizes
Why do I feel dismay (oh 4x)
