

Woman To Woman

Baccara

You and I
We love the same guy
Don't it make you sad
Don't it make you cry
You and I
Asked you to choose
Someone must win
And one of us has to loose

Woman to woman
Woman to woman to man
Oh tell me something
Something I don't understand
Once in the lifetime
Someone like him comes along
Bringing you a new day
Singing you a sweet song
He'll hold in the palm of his hand
Bringing you sunshine
Singing you love songs
Woman to woman to man

Woman to woman
Woman to woman to man
But it's no I that command
What in a lifetime
Someone so big and so strong
Bringing you
Bringing you sunshine's
He'll hold in the palm of his hand

Bringing you laughter
From now and after
Woman to woman to man

You and I
We love the same guy
So he will choose
Who say goodbye
Someone must stay
So he'll decide
Who walk away
They're hurting inside

Woman to woman
Woman to woman to man
Oh tell me something
Something I don't understand
Once in a lifetime
Someone like him comes along
Bringing you new day
Singing you sweet song
He'll hold you in the palm of his hand
Singing you love songs

Woman to woman

What in the life time
Someone so big and strong
Bringing you goodbye
