

Helpless

Backstreet Boys

I wake up every morning and see your face lying right beside me it fills the space in my heart
I can't live without you
and every time I lay my head down to sleep
the emptiness inside of me starts to beat so loud
I can't hear the sound
do you hear it?
for you

I fall in love all over again
each time
I lay my eyes on you
I pretend
I feel so helpless
without you
feel so helpless
without you
It takes a piece of me
each time you leave
I feel it in my chest
so hard to breathe
I feel so helpless
without you
I feel so helpless
without you

I witness every trick you got up your sleeve
but still somehow you keep on surprising me
I'm yours
I can't live without you
Every time I see you I feel like I could be the luckiest man in the world Why try to fight it There's no need to hide it because
you know

I fall in love all over again
each time
I lay my eyes on you
I pretend
I feel so helpless
without you
feel so helpless
without you
Helpless
without you

without you

Feels like
I fall apart
every time
Where do I start
I'm so helpless
without you

Every time I close my eyes you're the first thing that runs to my mind Everywhere I go
I see you hear you feel you
I just wanna be near you and heal? you Last thing you said is how dare you
First thing I said is I'm sorry Now I'm sitting here
man
Same old story

Now she's brokenhearted
Time heals all the wounds
She said
Not this time
It's true
Everyone plays a fool
And that fool is me Because I foolishly
took advantage of a woman who loved me

I fall in love all over again
each time
I lay my eyes on you
I pretend
without you
without you
each time you leave
without you
I feel so helpless
without you

ohh yeah
