

Blitzkrieg Loveshock

Backyard Babies

Here we are, did so far.
From the things that we don't talk about.
I'm glad, that's you.
And now I feel as clueless, hopeless little you.
It could be true.
We always thought that no one never knew.
But they do 'bout me and you.

Here I go, you know.
For a second there I thought we could live, in a dream.
There are a masspule to do, not seventeen.
You think I'm mean, when I tell you all I want.
It's get down between, you seems not meant to be.

We pretend , that it will end.
And If I play my cards we might just get away, but it starts!
They say you can't light a fire without a spark.
You wanna burn.
It's the heat not calling cool as you never learned.
So hot, gonna make the shot.
