

Spotlight The Sun

Backyard Babies

It's taken me forever
But I don't wanna go
I don't need a reason
I've been working like a dog

Aaah, strung out on time
Aaah, strung out on time

I need a bomb
Exploding in my veins
And if you lost the power
You need to rock & roll the dice
It's losers happy hour

I used to figure out what's in your narrow mind
But, baby, I think it's working overtime tonight

Aaah, strung out on time
Aaah, strung out on time

So where did you run

Where did you run
Lost all the fun
You can't spotlight the sun

Well, I used to figure out what's in your narrow mind
But, honey, I think it's working overtime tonight

Aaah, strung out on time
Aaah, strung out on time
Aaah, strung out on time
Aaah, strung out on time
