Spotlight The Sun

Backyard Babies

It's taken me forever But I don't wanna go I don't need a reason I've been working like a dog

Aaah, strung out on time Aaah, strung out on time

I need a bomb Exploding in my veins And if you lost the power You need to rock & roll the dice It's losers happy hour

I used to figure out what's in your narrow mind But, baby, I think it's working overtime tonight

Aaah, strung out on time Aaah, strung out on time

So where did you run

Where did you run Lost all the fun You can't spotlight the sun

Well, I used to figure out what's in your narrow mind But, honey, I think it's working overtime tonight

Aaah, strung out on time Aaah, strung out on time Aaah, strung out on time Aaah, strung out on time
