

Taxi Driver

Backyard Babies

I'll be your taxi driver for you, honey
Take you anywhere you want to
I'll be your taxi driver for you, honey
Take you anywhere you want to
Just call on me
I'll take you anywhere you want to

I'm a milkman for you, babe
I'll milk you anytime you want to
I'm a milkman for you, babe
I'll milk you anytime you want to
Just call me up
And you can milk me if you want to

Call me on your telephone
Hey, baby, I wasn't at home
Sometimes when I'm all alone

I'll be your taxi driver for you, honey
Take you anywhere you want to
I'll be your taxi driver for you, honey
Take you anywhere you want to
Just call on me
I'll take you anywhere you want to

Call me on your telephone
Wait a little, baby, I wasn't at home
Sometimes you reach me, sometimes you don't
Sometimes when I'm all alone

Call me on your telephone
Oh, you fuckin' little bitch, I wasn't at home
Sometimes you reach me, sometimes you don't
Sometimes when I'm all alone

You just call me on your telephone
Wait a little, baby, I wasn't at home
Sometimes you reach me, sometimes you don't
Sometimes when I'm all alone

I'll be your taxi driver
I'll be your taxi driver
I'll be your taxi driver
I'll be your taxi driver
