

Too Tough to Make Some Friends

Backyard Babies

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some...

Friends always call you
And lie on the phone
Like they think that you're tolerant too
But if they could see
What is goin' to be
And that you're actually left all alone

I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends

Hey!

Well everything changes
It's all part of the plan
Planning them out of my life
And all I can do
When I'm thinkin' 'bout you
I just switch to channel two

Well I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends

Hey!

Yeah! Yeah! Yeah! Yeah!

I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some...

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends

Hey!
Hey!
