Baby Blue

Bad Boys Blue

You tried to hide yourself in a shell
You wanted heaven but you got hell
And then the darkness gained control over you
When everything turned into bitter blue
You went into the land of no return

I cry over you
Baby Blue
I cry over you
Baby Blue.

They never ever gave you a chance
No dreams
No hopes
No helping hand
Someone took all the colors out of your life
That's when one night you
Left it all behind
You went into the land of return

I cry over you
Baby Blue
I cry over you
Baby Blue.

I cry over you
Baby Blue
I cry over you
Baby Blue.

I cry over you
Baby Blue
I cry over you
Baby Blue.
