

From Heaven to Heartache

Bad Boys Blue

And babe it's all over. We've crossed the road of no return.
I'm in the darkness. Our bridges of love they burn.

Nights in white satin.
Memories of feelings had all gone.
Where are we going.
Oh baby what have we done?

From heaven to heartache in one night.
My guardian angel out of sight.
We wanted it all and lost ourselves in the flames of lies.
From heaven to heartache once again.
We lost our illusions in the end.
I look in your face and see a tear missing in your eyes.

If you still miss me. Just send a signal to my heart.
I will remember. We're only worlds apart.

Close to each other.
I let some freedom in the sun.
Where are we going.
Oh baby what have we done?

From heaven to heartache in one night.
My guardian angel out of sight.
We wanted it all and lost ourselves in the flames of lies.
From heaven to heartache once again.
We lost our illusions in the end.
I look in your face and see a tear missing in your eyes.

Oh, Guardian angel out of sight.
You left me alone that very night.
Oh baby I still miss you.

From heaven to heartache in one night.
My guardian angel out of sight.
We wanted it all and lost ourselves in the flames of lies.
From heaven to heartache once again.
We lost our illusions in the end.
I look in your face and see a tear missing in your eyes.
