

Jenny, Come Home

Bad Boys Blue

Jenny was so young and full of desire.
Deep in her heart
was burning the fire.
She wanted to live
Just like the bird so free
One night she was gone
Gone with the wind.

Jenny come home, where you belong.
There's a heart to hold on tight.
Jenny come home, you're not alone.
I will stay by your side.
Jenny come home.

She didn't look back
Wanted to run away
Just to escape
small-town reality
She wanted to live
In neon-light fantasies
Take care of her dreams
They might fade away.

Jenny come home, where you belong.
There's a heart to hold on tight.
Jenny come home, you're not alone.
I will stay by your side.
Jenny come home.

Jenny come home, where you belong.
There's a heart to hold on tight.
Jenny come home, you're not alone.
I will stay by your side.
Jenny come home.
