

Where Are You Now

Bad Boys Blue

People around me. People are talking.
And I'm by myself laughing loud.
Watching the strangers. When they are walking.
Looking for you in the crowd.
Cause you are my one and only and you're always on my mind.
I cannot explain but when I hear your name.
Emotions are driving me wild.

Where are you now? I want your love more than everything.
Where are you now? I need you here by my side.
Where are you now? Where are you now since you've gone away.
Where are you now? I need you more everyday.

Sunshine and raindrops. They're going together.
First it is pleasure then pain.
But now that I want you. I want you forever.
That's why I'm going insane.
Cause you are my one and only and you're always on my mind.
I cannot explain but when I hear name.
Emotions are driving me wild.

Where are you now? I want your love more than everything.
Where are you now? I need you here by my side.
Where are you now? Where are you now since you've gone away.
Where are you now? I need you more everyday.
