Bad Cash Quartet

I go to the places where I been before I know you since you were four But we share so much more And I need you so Yeah I need you so I know all the answers before they are said I see from expressinons what's inside your head Yeah I need you so I need you so And all of the world is beneath us today But we run for shelter We run for shelter Inside our own world No you'll never know how much I care about you all And that is the only thing I keep inside my own hole Yeah that is the truth For me I go to the places where I been before But it doesn't feel like my home anymore Yeah I need you so I need you so And all of the world is beneath us today But we run for the shelter Yeah we run for the shelter Inside our own world No you'll never know how much I care about you all And that is the only thing I keep inside my own hole Yeah that is the truth For me