

Hey, Hey

Bad Company

Oho, baby, I'm in love again,
I love the way you baby talk,
Oho, baby, I'm in love again,
I love the way you babe walk that walk
You're driving me out of my mind,
I'm losing my self-control.

Hey, hey, I'm in love again,
Falling down on my knees,
I never thought I'd ever feel this way again.

I was walking out late last night, Hanging out in Central Park,
Saw a man coming up with a light in his eyes, Shinning out in the dark,
He said, hey where you going, you know, I said it ain't no business of yours because, Hey, hey, I'm in love again, Falling down on my knees,
I never thought I'd ever feel this way again.

Look out baby.

Yeah, yeah.

Hey, hey, I'm in love again, Falling down on my knees,
I never thought I'd ever feel this way again.

Hey, hey, I'm in love again, I'm falling down on my knees,
I never thought I'd ever feel this way again.

Hey, hey, I'm in love; I'm in love, Falling down on my knees,
I never ever thought I'd feel, this way, This way, again.
Yeah, yeah, I'm in love, in love, With a beautiful girl.
