

Untie the Knot

Bad Company

Like a pair of open wings you bind me
To a world I helped you build around me
Our gilded cage has turned into a prison cell
Like a dream when it dies becomes an empty shell

Untie the knot, the hold over me you got
Untie the knot, the hold over me you got

Like a slave who's bound in chains, a broken man
Like a pain no one could ever understand
That's the spark that lights the fire deep inside
As long as you ain't no blue in my sky

Untie the knot, the hold over me you got
Untie the knot, the hold over me that you got

Set me free from these chains
The time has come to rearrange our destiny

Untie the knot, the knot, untie the knot
Untie, untie, set me free, set me free
