

Forget Me Not

Bad English

You leave the light on at your door
You cross your heart across the bedroom floor
And through the window to your world
You can feel me there and you know I'm waiting

You taste the words of my forbidden kiss
Our eyes connect and we both know what this is

I will be your keeper you possess the key
Forget me not forget me not
'Cause you belong to me, yeah
I will be your shadow when you walk away
Forget me not forget me not
I will follow you until your dying day, oh yeah, oh

A thousand lifetimes long ago
We made a promise we would not let go
And so I come for you tonight
And we live again before we lose each other

I climb a stairway to the open sky
You are my universe I won't be denied no

I will be your keeper you possess the key
Forget me not forget me not
'Cause you belong to me, yeah
I will be your shadow when you walk away
Forget me not forget me not
I will follow you until your dying day, yeah, oh yeah

When I touch you
You will be touched by love

I climb the stairway to your world
You can feel me there and you know I'm waiting

I will be your keeper you possess the key
Forget me not forget me not
'Cause you belong to me
I will be your shadow when you walk away
Forget me not forget me not
I will follow you until your dying day

(Forget me not forget me not)
'Cause baby you belong to me, oh yeah
(Forget me not forget me not)
You're everything I see
(Forget me not forget me not)
And baby you belong to me

You're mine no no no no no
(Forget me not forget me not)
Baby baby baby baby you belong to me
(Forget me not forget me not)
'Cause baby you belong to me, oh yeah
(Forget me not, forget me not)

Forget me not forget me not
Forget me not forget me not
Forget me not forget me not
Forget me not forget me not
