

'Down Berry Wood'

Bad Manners

And If I ask you to be mine
Would you accept, would you relcline?
Upon the grass, beneath the trees
Would you be happy there with me?

and if you close your eyes,
and listen to my sweet sweet lies,
Would that be good?
That would be good.

And if I cross my heart,
and promise we'll never part,
Would you lay down that berry wood?

Down berry wood (Down berry wood)
Down berry wood (Down berry wood
Down berry wood (Down berry wood

Ill smooth the moss beneath yoru head
And fallen leave would make our bed and all the world will stand still until you whisper "yes I will"

and if you close your eyes,
and listen to my sweet sweet lies,
Would that be good?
That would be good.

And if I cross my heart,
and promise we'll never part,
Would you lay down that berry wood?

Down berry wood (Down berry wood)
Down berry wood (Down berry wood
Down berry wood (Down berry wood

Soft as the twilight slips away
Now shall I ask you if I may Lay Berry Wood down in the deep Deep in the kigdom of our sleep

and if you close your eyes,
and listen to my sweet sweet lies,
Would that be good?
That would be good.

And if I cross my heart,
and promise we'll never part,
Would you lay down that berry wood?
