

Hello Cruel World

Bad Religion

I can't stop the way I feel,
But I can penetrate your religion with a nail
You are mine and we are twine
When we radiate in waves together, everything is fine

Hello cruel world
Do you know that you're killing me?
I don't mind,
But I could use a little sympathy

I've been blind
As a fool can be
My dear cruel world,
Do you ever think about me?

I can feel so alone with you right here
And yet, I turn to you for comfort in my despair
You are dust and I am bone
And I will love your endless gaze of madness until I turn to stone

Hello cruel world
Do you know that you're killing me?
I don't mind,
But I could use a little sympathy

I've been blind
As a fool can be
My dear cruel world,
Now I know you are my everything

Please forgive me

Hello cruel world
Do you know that you're killing me?
I don't mind,
But I could use a little sympathy

I've been blind
As a fool can be
My dear cruel world,
Now I've made a mess of everything
