

My Heart Goes Out

Badfinger

I wanna tell you how much I need you now
I wanna show you what love can do
Can you take me like I am?
Loving you now can be sad
I can remember times we have had
And for you now, my heart goes out, once again

You turn me down, I wonder why
You turn away with sunken eyes
I see nothing but the best
I imagine all the rest coming true

I wanna touch you, I wanna be with you now
I wanna show you what love can do
I can take you like a man
Loving you now can be sad
I can remember times we have had
But for you now, my heart goes out, once again

You turn me down, I wonder why
You turn away with sunken eyes
I see nothing but the best
I imagine all the rest coming true

For you now, my heart goes out
For you now, my heart goes out, once again.
