

Hard To Believe

Badlands

You come to me with made up stories
Nothing's ever true
Forced to say I do believe
One look in your eyes to see it through

It's so hard to believe
All those lies I get to hear
Living to deceive
Trying to get out of here right now

Without any shame
You're spreading nonsense to impress
A mental abnormality
Is dragging you right in this mess

We won't forget these empty promises you made
A second chance you had but now it is too late
Don't want any explanations, nothing is ever true
Turn around and leave is all you can do
