

It's Gonna End

Badlands

Hey, my brother, where do you go
You just gave away some fuckin' show
Can't believe the words you say
Or the games you'd like to play
Count to ten, I'm often told
Who bought the sould that you have sold
These four falls are closing in Face the enemy within

Shit, I can't understand
Why does it go wrong in the end
This mean devil's on the loose
What direction shall I choose
You'd better start a prayer ...

Chorus:

Well, I know one day it's gonna end
Trouble's hiding round the bend
Now you can't see the things you do are wrong
We are sick and tired of your ways
And it's gotta end today
Oh, I know it's hard but you've got to carry on

Walk the tightrope for the kicks
Don't you know these dirty tricks
Might be used against you once
I'd like to payback in advance
Moralising words now and then
Fetch that rope, I'll watch you hang
Start the countdown, make my day
What's the use of one more pray

Shit, I can't understand
Why does it go wrong in the end
This mean devil's on the loose
What direction shall I choose
You'd better start a prayer ...

Chorus

Shit, I can't understand
Why does it go wrong in the end
This mean devil's on the loose
What direction shall I choose
You'd better start a prayer ...

Chorus
