

My Song

Badlands

This is my song, and you can't take it away from me
This is my song, about a life in misery
For me it's so hard to express the way I feel
I've got no one to turn to, the pain inside won't be revealed

Where does it lead to
Don't want to end up out in the cold
Fighting my way through but it seems good luck I cannot hold
Tired of fighting
Another heartbreak I can't take no more
Misunderstood and broken
I keep my head down towards the floor

Closing my eyes, let me rest now to be free
Closing my eyes, to escape from reality
Suspicious I look at the world after these years
I tried to give love, in return I was given tears
