

Shake the Rollercoaster

Badly Drawn Boy

You might walk all over me in violet shoes
While i shake the rollercoaster morning blues
I cant get satisfied by being satisfied
I opened up my mind to find it wasnt mine.

Then i look for someone else
I can find no one else....like you

Do do do....bum ba dum

And when i needed something wasnt there.
And then i pleaded on the silent share
Only when it suits i can be on your side
You call me up, i sing my song without a smile

Then i look for someone else
I can find no one else....like you

Do do do
