

Overnight Sensation

Balance Of Power

One more time, I'm sitting here thinking,
How you rule my world,
But still draw the line,

Someone said that your here and your gone,
And that's all that matters,
Someone said that I'm blind to the fact,
And my heart got shattered,

I'm just another night,
Overnight sensation,
Overnight sensation,
So tell me I'm right,
Overnight sensation,

Am I so easy to please, or the only answer,
You always love to tease, tease me til dawn,
You always move me like a mountain,
I don't care why,
The buck stops here,
Let's make it clear,
No more goodbyes,
