

Searching For The Truth

Balance Of Power

There's no mistake, there's no regret, what I know it there's no room for changing All I own is one degree that's in life, that's in me
This is fast becoming my philosophy
Feel the truth...the unmistaken, unclean truth and see the truth...my eyes are open wide

'Cause I'm stronger now,
I last much longer now
But I still hunger now,
So I'm Searching for the Truth again
I'm older now and I feel bolder now but I'm no wiser now
So I'm Searching for the Truth again

Sudden changes make their mark this fascination has no explanation even now I feel the sting somethings wrong with everything Check your pulse you could be stone cold dead now Feel the truth...the unmistaken, unclean truth
and see the truth...my eyes are open wide
