

The Pleasure Room

Balance Of Power

No one needs to know...

I'm in league with strangers, I'm talking all the time... How's the weather?

When I need the danger, I find it every time....Come whatever..

Cause I'm damned if I'll be chastised for my healthy, Wholesome pastimes

And I pray that I'll remain forever more.... In the Pleasure Room....

No one needs to know...

Is the Weakness winning? Scared of what you'll find....Pain or Pleasure

If your dream aare damning, are you the forgiving kind....for Now, Forever....

All at once I feel the weight of what I've seen and how I've prayed

That one day I'll be safe, forever more....In the Pleasure Room....

No one needs to know....

As I weep inside my prison cell, I keep alive my private hell

I pray that I'll remain forever more.... in my Pleasure Room...
