

Sail to the Horizon

Balflare

Sailing where the wind guides me
Miles of endless sea
In the mist of the morning sun
Go on! I'm alive again

Lay aside the past
And reach out to the horizon
The wayward youth is gone
Won't be missing the neon lights
Ready to go and fly away
To a clear blue sky above
In a dream of a paradise

Gazing up into the starlight
Serenity in the night
Flowing into my body
Vigor and spark of life

Lay aside the past
And reach out to the horizon
The wayward youth is gone
Won't be missing the neon lights
Ready to go and fly away
To a clear blue sky above
In a dream of a paradise

Lay aside the past
And reach out to the horizon
The wayward youth is gone
Won't be missing the neon lights
Ready to go and fly away
To a clear blue sky above
In a dream of a paradise
