

The Day Falls

Balflare

Finally gone away
We're taken over
We cannot overcome
Do we surrender?

Where are we going to?
We're headed for a blow
Imagination dies away
How far do we go?

Venture into the facts
Never leaving home
Everybody interacts
Yet, we'll be alone

We ran around till sundown
Brings back recollections,
All at once
We talked all night
Had a fight
Those days are long gone,
In the past

Fading into the wire
Our words and feelings, so...
Wave controlling our minds
Can't stop anymore

What are we looking for
A place to ease our pain
Warmth and kindness we ignore
Our wish is in vain

We spend endless time
In silence
Wasting away our prime
It is such a shame

We ran around till sundown
Brings back recollections,
All at once
We talked all night
Had a fight
Those days are long gone,
In the past
