

Tormenter

Balflare

I'm alone in the fight, don't cry again
Burning with hatred
How do I get back at them all?
Life can be demanding, so fight again
Can't surrender, get rid of the tormentor

I'm lost in the darkness, sending an SOS
Leaving my fears, leaving my tears
Feeling my soul, standing daringly

Struggle in the long battle
Promise never fall over again
Some will tell you
Game is over
Now, get out of the
Lion's den

I know it is not easy to be strong
But don't run away, there's no place to hide
Carry on, carry on to the next stage
I can only dream of what awaits me

I'm alone in the fight, so shout again
Burning with hatred
How do I get back at them all?
Life can be demanding, so fight again
Can't surrender, get rid of the tormentor

I'm lost in the darkness, sending an SOS
Leaving my fears, leaving my tears
Feeling my soul, standing daringly

Struggle in the long battle
Promise never fall over again
Some will tell you
Game is over
Now, get out of the
Lion's den

I know it is not easy to be strong
But don't run away, there's no place to hide
Carry on, carry on to the next stage
I can only dream of what awaits me

I know it is not...
