

Next Life Already

Ball Park Music

I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By losing my job
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By leaving my girl
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By sleeping with a guy
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By questioning my love

I just wanna float downstream
I just wanna forget everything
I just wanna get to the next life already
I just wanna be okay

I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By leaving my home
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By admitting I'm broke
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By quitting my band
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By losing my mind

I just wanna float downstream
I just wanna forget everything
I just wanna get to the next life already
I just wanna be okay

I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By blowing out my brains
I don't want to tarnish what appears to be my perfect record
By admitting I'm wrong

I just wanna float downstream
I just wanna forget everything
I just wanna get to the next life already
I just wanna be okay

I just wanna talk to my mom
I just wanna talk to my dad
I just wanna get to the next life already
I just wanna be okay
