Open my eyes Open my eyes and see you lying beside me Touch your lips Touch your lips to mine you're touching me inside Lightning flashes, river swells And Im crashing to the ground Feels like Im walking through the sand Water seeping through my veins I feel just like a child When Im in your arms Falling fast and deep Falling into heat Falling to my knees Falling free Open my heart Open my heart and mind Let you embrace me Dawn is waking A new day rising Sunlight touching my skin And I want to be strong Cause I want you in my life Feels like Im floating through open air Youre flames seeping through me Falling fast and deep Falling into heat Falling to my knees Falling free
