Letting Go

Balligomingo

The sun will shine again I'm letting go and I sing

Help me find the reason Make me see the light Wrap me up and drive me home Make it be all right

Find me something good, before I run away.

Let be your reason Help me say goodbye Wrap me up and drive me home this is our last night

Find me something good, before I run away.

The sun will shine again I'm letting go and I sing

The sun will shine again So now I know and I sing to you.

Let be your reason Help me say goodbye Wrap me up and drive me home this is our last night

Find me something good, before I run away.

The sun will shine again I'm letting go and I sing

The sun will shine again So now I know and I sing to you.
