

I Lately Notice

Ballyhoo!

I seem to lately notice
More and more each day
That everything is so messed up
Until you walk around my way
And everything is so unusual
Whenever you're around
Nothing is how it was found
So I say

Let's spend some time together
Even though stormy weather
'cause everything I remember
Points to all good things

Not a cloud up in the sky at all
Whenever you are near
Just the sunny blue projection
Of the atmosphere
I wonder what I would be like to be
Deep inside of you
I think that I would like to know
So I say
