

If You Gotta Go

Ballyhoo!

If you gotta go, I promise I'll understand
And if you gotta be somewhere, I'll let go of your hand
And if you gotta get away, I promise I won't find you
And if you wanna leave me, that's your choice and I won't chase
you

It's when she said
I don't love you anymore, anyway, anyday
I'm so sick of pointing fingers, no admission just pass the bla
me
Cause it's both of us inside of this, and noone else can say
That it's over, like we know it's over

I've been so lonely lately, buy your right here next to me
You don't answer when I call you baby and you wanna come escape
? with me
There is so much distance, I always have to run to you
And if you wanna leave me, that's your choice and I wont chase
you

It's when she said
I don't love you anymore, anyway, anyday
I'm so sick of pointing fingers, no admission just pass the bla
me
Cause it's both of us inside of this, and noone else can say
That it's over, like we know it's over

I let it go this far, domestic hurricane?
Remember when you felt the same as me
I wish I could hold on, I see it in your face
That we are in different places, That's when she said...

I don't love you anymore, anyway, anyday
I'm so sick of pointing fingers, no admission just pass the bla
me
Cause it's both of us inside of this, and noone else can say
That it's over, like we know it's over
Like we know it's over
