

Just A Head

Ballyhoo!

Lost track of time, I lost my mind
And now I'm involved with losing my spine
Will you sink with me?
Just for a night?
I could use the company but if not
Then I will be fine

Oh, you know where to find me
I'll be just a head, getting drunk again
Oh, when nature is calling
I'll be headed for the bathroom
To piss away my sorrows

To scared to run, to drunk to fight
Balls deep in this bottle
Corona and a lime
I really don't belong here
My time is spent better in the world
But the earth is coming down on me
And I think I'm gonna hurl
