

The Struggle

Ballyhoo!

Another empty scene is up on my tv screen
Sometimes somethings aren't always what they seem
Sometimes we don't feel so sareen

I'll write a thousand songs
I hope you sing along
Keep it up, keep it up, hold it down
I know that life goes on
Feels like I missed it all
Sometimes I don't care if I live or die
I know I'll struggle on

The silence is so loud
It's beating on my chest
Much louder than all the rest
The grip is tighter now
I wish I'd stop choking
My heart is broken

I saw you in a dream
Swear, goddamn, we're on moon beams
Sometimes things, yeah, are not what they seem Sometimes we don't feel so supreme

If it's right or wrong
I hope you sing along
Keep it up, keep it up, hold it down
I know that life goes on
Feels like I missed it all
Sometimes I don't care if I quit or try
Till then I'll carry on

And when my love is gone
I hope you sing along
Keep it up, keep it up, hold it down
I know that life goes on
Feels like I missed it all
Sometimes I don't care if I live or die
I know I'll struggle on
