

Decency

Balthazar

We took the moon
Right from the Sky
We took it down, caged it in
Where forsaken lie

But guess we've been rats
Just long enough
Nothing but chewing
On those strings of love

While the moon slips out the door
We keep asking back for more
It's What we came here for
If she won't see us anymore
Then what Will we sing
What is it we'll shout out for

We leave this trace
We're on the run
We'll keep our ways
Hide for no one

Guess we've been rats
For quite a While
Lacking any
Decendy and style

While the moon slips out the door
We keep asking back for more
It's what we came here for
If she won't see us anymore
Then what Will we sing
What is it we'll shout out for

Pour it Just a little more
Pour it Just a little more
Where are we heading

Guess we've been rats
For quite a While
Lacking any
Decendy and style

While the moon slips out the door
We keep asking back for more
It's What we came here for
If she won't see us anymore
Then what Will we sing
What is it we'll shout out for

Pour it Just a little more
Pour it Just a little more
Where are we heading
