

I walked down to the park, the empty afternoon
And then I had some drink so I would feel much better soon
And then I phantomed a future without you by my side
And then I drank some more to make me feel alright

You didn't see me there, on my own
Maybe you did see me but you just walked back home

And I don't mind, I don't see
What is wrong with you and me
Don't give me that shit again
'Cos I already been there
I don't mind, I don't see
What is wrong with you and me
Don't give me that shit again
'Cos I've already at it

Then I walked along the empty avenue
And then I had some more to drink 'cos the end would come up
Soon
And then I thought I saw you walking hand in hand
With some other chick you know,
Some butch from the other end of town

You didn't see me strangling in your web
Like a fly to get out, unable to move one step

And I don't mind, I don't see
What is wrong with you and me
Don't give me that shit again
'Cos I already been there
'Cos I've had it up to here
And I don't mind, I don't see
What is wrong with you and me
Don't give me that shit again
'Cos I had it up to here
'Cos I've already ate it
