

Fundamentalist

Bambix

When I wake up I'm lying in a pool fo blood
The game is ruined. alright
Failures gabe me a few good lessons
Won't hesitate to fight

So I scream, scream, it's nobody else's dream
Gonna live my life the only way I can.
And nobody can stop me
Cuz nobody will understand

I set free the sentamentalist in me
Won't wash my mouth with soap
I've got goals and scoring power
My blood is my dope

I set free the fundamentalist in me

And now this day rolled by in a blur of pleasure
It allows me to see myself afresh
Don't care about the dread that's coming
Cuz life's a blast
