

Seclusion

Bambix

sit back, relax and enjoy your chair relax and sit back, be happy that you're somewhere where the truth doesn't hurt where you can say any word you like except for Scoren

whatever your thrill whatever which pill you've never been in the clouds whatever which door no matter what you're looking for you're the only one with the key

so why are you screaming when there's noone to hear you shout so why are you sneering when there's nothing to sneer about it's a tough world with swines and pearls you say you're sorry for yourself it's your way out but you break bounds you'll end up in the wrong box

you're not that endearing when you're dead beat and all gaunt you're on a trip but your suitcase is empty you're on a trip but you didn't bring a map you lost track and the guide you had is gone you lost track and your compass shows no compassion
