

Last Days On A Cruise Ship

Bamboo

Maybe

Just give me a li'l more time
So I can just relax and lay down
On some beautiful real estate
The kind that money can't find
She burns so bright
She burns so bright

Knocking on my door

No don't you worry
I got this all under control
If things get tight
We can call the whole things off
Better run she's gonna waste you
Better check your temperature
Follow the beat go faster and faster and faster

No one break from the formation no I won't run I won't run

Finally my sins are forgiven don't change the channel straight to battle

No one break from the formation stand your ground stand your gr ound

When you're this close to the sun now's not the time to run

Don't wait for tomorrow

Now I see you're trying that Jedi mind shit on me

But I apologize I just ain't that kind of guy

Let me get you a name of someone else

He'll get back to you with a courteous reply

But it's been too long too long

I'll burn first before it's long gone long gone

Don't you worry bout me

He wrote a letter saying for all that's he's done wrong

Me the perpetrator red handed middle finger on the trigger

Sold on the idea that bigger was better

Whatever it took sell your soul better go

Cuz I'm not here to play no part

This boy's a fighter all star all souls

This boy's tle clear winner

Ready to fire ready to go

Don't wait for tomorrow
