

These Days

Bamboo

i seem to find a million reasons to sit around and waste my mind know what's being said and that's all fine you tell me to get a life do you understand the weight of that line?
take me for all I am

[chorus:]
coz I can find
my own way
big date tonight
there's no tomorrow
so let's leave it on the line coz there's time
it's not too late to change direction
turn your head son
so let's leave it on the line

there's something within that's telling me that I'm just playing it too cool i could pretty much lose everything i never had an apple that tasted so... so sweet given the chance, the choice
take me for all I am (repeat chorus)

today... i am free
free to fly free to be what they tell me I cannot be happy birthday to me

is this the light at the end?
where the picture is clearer, the reception is warmer
is this the light at the end?
you're looking lot better we're happy to see ya
is this the light at the end?
you got what you came for you know where to find the door
is this the light at the end?
where the woman are hot but the beer's a lot colder
is this the light at the end?
yo momma's looking good what she doing for dinner?
is this the light at the end?
if yo momma's busy does she have a younger sister?
is this the light at the end?
you got what you came for you know where to find the door
is this the light at the end?

you know I woke up to a beautiful morning till you showed up nauseous I was to see you standing there in my presence but it was alright coz I'm not about to fight when this bird wants to sing i'll sing

gunpoint that suppose to scare me into submission a slave to your will, fear, greed and ambition but I'm not game...
i'm not game to your flame there's no discussion i will fight to the end... fighter...
