Is Your Love Strong Enough

Bananarama

Let me take you on a trip with me
Through stormy waters to tranquillity
Where the winds of change are bittersweet
Only the strongest will succeed

Destiny has her eye on you
She's watching you
Surely the hand of fate will pull you through

But is your

And good intentions are hard to keep
When jealous voices are all around
Without a care they drag you down down down

Into the dark out of the blue
Out of the blue
Heaven is smiling down on you

But is your
Is your love
Love strong enough
Strong enough
Strong enough when things get rough for you
Strong enough
And they do
Is your
Is your love
Love strong enough
Strong enough
Strong enough for you to make it through
Strong enough

But is your
Is your love
Love strong enough
Strong enough
Strong enough when things get rough for you
Strong enough
And they do
Is your
Is your love

Love strong enough
Strong enough
Strong enough for you to make it through
Strong enough

But is your
Love strong enough
Strong enough when things get rough for you
Is your
Is your love
Love strong enough
Strong enough
Strong enough for you to make it through
Strong enough

Is it strong enough?

But is your
Is your love
Love strong enough

Strong enough for you to make it through
