Can we stop now all our arguments?
Can we end now all our wars?
I think it's time we had a go at finding out whats wrong.
Is there something you don't like in the way i sing to you?
Please tell me, maybe i'll change it or explain it for you.
What would make you feel better?
Is there something i can do?
Do we have to carry on like there is no choice?
Do you like how you're feeling?
Does it take the ache away?
Shall we just forget it, i never said it, okay...
Please remember what i look like,
Please remember that i tried
But you burned me
Left me empty
Wouldn't listen, i died
