

Everything's Gonna Be Undone

Band of Horses

Started building up a fortune
Stashed away in a hidden place
We can hide if you want to
We can hide but then one day

Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Oooo Ooo oo oooo

How'd you get to be wound so tight
Never seen somebody such a mess
Try you will and you try you might
We'll be falling not gonna rest

Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Oooo Ooo oo oooo

You know that it will
You know that it will...

So many things I could have written down
In the passing of a restless night
Some of those were worth keeping
There are things which you should never write

Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Oooo Ooo oo oooo

You know that it will
You know that it will...
(2x)

You think you found another loved one
Now you know that you will never apart
You know that everything can be undone
You couldn't take another broken heart

Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Everything's gonna be undone
Oooo Ooo oo oooo
