

Heartbreak on the 101

Band of Horses

Did you think that I'd just slowly start to fade
You could steal my livelihood and send me on my way
I know it's old but I was caught out in the rain
So I rested under a bridge
I made some new friends
And I wept, and I wept
Did you really think that I'd just stand in line
Wait around for you until whatever time you like
I took the pieces of a broken heart
And I had no choice
Heartbreak on the 101
Heartbreak on the 101
I'm over it...
You leave me more damaged every day you took my entire world and threw it all away
Its cold outside I need a place to lay
So I rest beneath the bridge with the friends that I made
Couldn't really think that I'd just stand aside
Take up something new or start another life
Look at the pieces of a broken heart
And see what it could do
Heartbreak on the 101
Heartbreak on the 101
I'm over it...
Can't think that I'd just slowly fade away
You could put me on the sidewalk with a suitcase
I know it's over and it sounds a bit cliché
But I want you back so bad
Leave the pieces where they lay
And I pray for your return
There's no sign
And I'm sleeping with my one eye open
Just in case you might
No, nothing ever works
Its just a waste of time
I can't seem to get it right
Heartbreak on the 101
Everybody's watching
Come take a look
Heartbreak on the 101
Everybody watch
Everybody look
Heartbreak on the 101
Heartbreak on the 101
Heartbreak on the 101
